Virtual Event:
Recognizing human trafficking; when children are the victims

The Family Enrichment Center at the Hospital of Central Connecticut in New Britain is proud to partner with The Bloom Initiative at The Salvation Army of Southern New England and their Anti-Human Trafficking Programs. Next month they will offer a comprehensive introduction in child trafficking in Connecticut.

The program will focus on the following topics to help bolster knowledge and awareness in our communities:

- Understanding child trafficking
- Prevalence in Connecticut
- Warning signs/red flags
- Responding to tips
- Victim support
- Exploiters of this crime
- Federal & state legislation

The training session will be facilitated by Taylor deGraffenried, Survivor Support Specialist from Willimantic.
